Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While molded manufactured articles encompassing hydrophobic or hydrophilic monomers presently claimed have been known, as evident from the prior art citations, there is no suggestion to have these as the forming or molding surface itself for the release of rubber latex.

In an Examiner Interview of with applicants representative with Jane E. Gennaro on May 18, 2004 an Examiner's Amendment to the claims positively reciting the presence of the monomers on the mold surface was agreed to.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below.

Rewrite claim 1 as:

A mold or former used to form natural or synthetic rubber articles by immersion of the mold or former into a natural or synthetic rubber latex, onto which former is first disposed a release composition to facilitate release of the rubber latex from the mold or former, the release composition comprising an emulsion polymer having a Tg of at least -10C, the emulsion polymer formed from:

(a) at least one hydrophobic monomer selected from the group consisting of acrylates, methacrylates, vinyl acetate, ethylene, and styrene; and

(b) at least one hydrophilic monomer selected from the group consisting of hydroxyethyl acetate, acrylonitrile, 2-

(dimethylamino)ethyl(meth)acrylate, [3,(methacryloylamino)propyl]- trimethylammonium chloride, 2-acrylamido-2-methyl-1-propanesulfonic acid sodium salt, [2-(acryloyloxy)-ethyl]trimethyl-ammonium chloride, acrylic acid, and methacrylic acid.

Art Unit: 1773

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jane E. Gennaro on May 18, 2004.

Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

CONCLUSION

The claims are 1 and 25.

- All claims have been allowed.
